The Power of Relational Presence Lee Glickstein

SPEAKING COACH, CONSULTANT,
AUTHOR, KEYNOTER

"Effective public speaking is simply a series of one-on-one conversations. Master that and you will speak with ease and power, any time, anywhere." — Lee

Lee Glickstein, founder of Speaking Circles International, is an authority on presence, ease and authenticity with groups. An acclaimed keynote speaker, communications consultant, and seminar leader, Lee delivers programs and coaching sessions with a unique combination of inspiration and step-by-step innovation.

A lifetime of stage fright motivated Lee to develop a gentle, elegant approach to break through the epidemic fear of being fully oneself in front of groups. This process of discovery led him to a thorough understanding of the principles of authentic leadership communication through Relational Presence.

"YES. YES. YES. Lee Glickstein has managed to put into words the mystical experience of really connecting, not just speaking. I am better for it."

— Rosita Perez, National Speakers Association, Florida, CPAE (Council of Peers Award for Excellence)

"What a relief to find that I could be more effective by speaking to the audience in my natural style, directly from my heart and belly, rather than according to the teaching of traditional public speaking instruction."

— Hermann Maynard, Author of The Fourth Wave: Business in the 21st Century

Lee is author of Be Heard Now! Tap Into Your Inner Speaker and Communicate with Ease (Broadway Books) and Be Heard Now! How to Speak Naturally and Powerfully in Front of Any Audience (Sounds True Audiotapes).

"Be Heard Now! is on the cutting edge of where leadership and speaking are going. It will absolutely revolutionize your power with people--on and off the platform. Lee Glickstein's wisdom is unsurpassed." — Glenna Salisbury, NSA Arizona, CSP, CPAE, Arizona, Former NSA President
